

Workshop for Parents and Providers of Home and Private School Students with Disabilities

The Special Education Department of Henry County Schools is providing a workshop for parents and providers of home school and private school students who have been identified as having a disability or for those parents and providers who suspect their student(s) may have a disability. The workshop will be held on Thursday, November 10, 2005 from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm at:

Family Resource Center
Henry County Schools Education Center
115 S. Lee Street
Stockbridge, GA 30281

The purpose of this meeting is to discuss current services provided for home school and private school students, as well as receive parental and service provider input as to how best serve special needs students in the future. If you have any questions, please contact Debbie Daub at Debbie.daub@henry.k12.ga.us or by phone at 770-957-8086.