Every morning I get ready for school in one hour. The key to getting ready for school in one hour is preparation. First of all, I pack my book bag for school before I go to bed. Next, I lay out the clothes that I am going to wear to school the next day. Then, in the morning when I wake up, I follow the same routine each day. I brush my teeth, wash my face, shower, get dressed, and comb my hair. Sometimes I sleep with the light on. I have a daily breakfast menu that I follow, so I look on the menu and then eat an instant breakfast before I go to school. Finally, I am ready for school. It is hard to believe that I do it all in just an hour!

2. Which sentence is NOT related to the main idea of the paragraph?

- A. Then in the morning when I wake up, I follow the same routine every day.
 - B. I brush my teeth, wash my face, shower, get dressed, and comb my hair.
 - C. Sometimes I sleep with the light on.
 - D. Finally, I am ready for school.

Each spring our school schedules a field day. Every class has a special event. Kindergarten and first-grade students run relay races. Also, the second and third graders compete in sack races and tug-of-war. Then the upper grades challenge each other in volleyball. You never know who will win! In addition, there are other nice things about our field day. We all get to enjoy spending the day outside. It's usually sunny and just the right temperature. At lunchtime, we get to have special treats like ice cream. All the students enjoy the day of fun.

8. Which sentence in the passage above is used as a transition?
- A. Each spring our school schedules a field day.
 - B. You never know who will win!

A large caterpillar may be ready to make its chrysalis right away. A small caterpillar may need to feed and grow for a while first. Each day, remove the tissue and drop in a couple of leaves from the plant on which you found the caterpillar. If you found the caterpillar in the grass, try different leaves until you find out which one your caterpillar will eat.

After some time, the caterpillar will stop eating. It will quit eating the leaves you drop in. It will climb the stick and make its cocoon. It may stay in the cocoon for up to two weeks! Finally, you will notice the cocoon breaking open. Gently remove the tissue and place the open jar outside. Your new butterfly will emerge, but it will stay by the cocoon until its wings are dry enough to fly. Some species take up to two days to dry their wings. If you are patient, you will be lucky enough to witness its first flight!

9. Which sentence or phrase from the passage is redundant?
- A. A small caterpillar may need to feed and grow for a while first.
 - B. try different leaves until you find out which one your caterpillar will eat.
 - C. It will quit eating the leaves you drop in.
 - D. Finally, you will notice the cocoon breaking open.

Every summer Sharon's family spent two weeks at the beach, renting a house right on the water. In addition, they knew several other families that went to the beach at the same time, so Sharon and her brothers had friends to play with. They spent most days playing in the sand and water, building sandcastles and tunnels, and swimming in the ocean. However, when it rained they stayed home and played games or cards. Afterwards, they often took long walks on the beach. During these walks Sharon learned a lot about astronomy from her mother. Spending two weeks at the beach was Sharon's favorite part of the summer.

Tetras, which come primarily from South America, can be found in a wide variety of colors. The cardinal tetra has neon blue and red stripes, while the lemon tetra is a semi-transparent yellow. Tetras are freshwater fish and are relatively strong and easy to keep. They are very peaceful, undemanding fish and can be kept with other non-aggressive fish of the same size. Most tetras need a diet of live food, preferably fruit flies, although some will also eat vegetables, such as lettuce. All tetras need plenty of open space in the tank to swim. Lighting in their aquarium should be moderately bright.

12. Which sentence would NOT add new information to the paragraph above?

- A. The bleeding-heart tetra has a red spot on its side.
 - B. Other fish in the tank should not be bigger or smaller.
 - C. If no other food can be found, they will eat dried food.
 - D. The water in the aquarium should be about 75 degrees.
